ARTION see below 25X1  OF CONTENT 55 and 26 October 1955.  RENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. a 1993).  25X1		Merseburg Airfield
OF CONTENT 25 and 26 October 19th.  25 x1  DNYE PREPARED. 3 December 19th  RENCES.  1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 1765).  RNS.  25 x1	che un marrie del
DATE PREPARED 3 Describer 1971  RENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 6 TYPS).  25X1	10ITA	v see below	25X1
RENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  25X1	OF C		essellen aansatsa tiilennis tiisen ee eliste ee maa tiitoolist
25X1	,,                                   	Z5X	enteración de alcorder eraciónsciones detail had been stationed at the field for about four weaks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the barreads installations, concreting work on the running taxinary and convecting lance very completed, concreting in the sestern extension of the runny was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lance in the settern section of the field were unchanged, two power showels removed the sput tract from the northecotern corner of the field are as a point in line with the derichters are about about 700 motors from it was revord 150 to 200 where to the sects, the new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railread branch line was then laid, Six power showels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 forms latered were angaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1 001 can, almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  [Injury personnel were to surrive at the field within the next days.]                  	ENC		alle et vita companionale establica and an establica and detail had been stationed at the Sield for about four weaks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the barreeks installations, concreting work on the rummary, taxiway and convecting lance were correlated. Somewhile in the sestern extension of the number of memory was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lances in the settern section of the field were unchanged. Two power showeds removed the sput thack from the northisectorm corner of the fields of far as a point in the with the Cerichtersian read. The content of the landing between the northwestern carner and a point about 300 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then ladd, Six power shovels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 derman laterers were anyaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men, ilmest, all the Soviets were ongaged in grading the landing fields.  Thying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  Construction at Largeburg airfield was completed by late-Detalor 1951. The information on the presence of an advence dotail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  Construction  *	-	1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	gaveler visige) i mice progres NIA- a Brist (444), 1844
detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the barracks installations, concreting work on the runway, taxingy and connecting lames were completed. Concreting in the eastern extension of the runway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lames in the settern special of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the settern special of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the settern special read, The cost border of the field as far as a point in line with the Generichrenia read. The cost border of the landing between the normhousefur concar and a point about 300 motors from it was noved 150 to 200 methors to the special read. The substance of a matter surface, a railroad branch line was them lade, Six poars showels removed the hill in the western contion of the field. About 300 German haborers were engaged in grading the landing fields.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing fields.  For field was still occupied by 700 to 1000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing fields.  For field was still occupied by 700 to 1000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing fields.  REFERENCE COPY  99 MOT GIRCULATE  CLASSIFICATION THE CLASSIFICATION TO BE A CLASSIFICATION T	≀KS		mandanid stransveredistriki, inskrih kransti detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the barracks installations, concreting work on the runway, taximay and connecting lanes were completed. Concreting in the eastern extension of the runway was discontaineds.  1 extension of the runway was discontaineds.  2 be resumed. The connecting lanes in the settern special work will not be resumed. The connecting lanes in the settern special of the field were unchanged. Two power showls removed the spar track from the northeastern connect of the field as far as a point in line with the Gentichtersin read. The cost border of the landing between the northeastern caraer and a point about 300 notors from it was neved 15% to 200 method to the special field at 100 notes were entired by a staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface, a railread branch line was then laid, Six power shouls removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 Jerman laborers were engaged in grading the landing fields, and the construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. throat all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing fields, and the next days.  1 Consent.*  Con	والمالة المنوسولية detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the barracks installations, concreting work on the runway, taximay and connecting lanes were completed. Concreting in the eastern extension of the runway was discontaineds.  1 extension of the runway was discontaineds.  2 be resumed. The connecting lanes in the settern special work will not be resumed. The connecting lanes in the settern special of the field were unchanged. Two power showls removed the spar track from the northeastern connect of the field as far as a point in line with the Gentichtersin read. The cost border of the landing between the northeastern caraer and a point about 300 notors from it was neved 15% to 200 method to the special field at 100 notes were entired by a staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface, a railread branch line was then laid, Six power shouls removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 Jerman laborers were engaged in grading the landing fields, and the construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. throat all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing fields, and the next days.  1 Consent.*  Con detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the bereacks installations, concreting work on the runway, taxinay and connecting lanes were completed. Concreting in the eastern extension of the runway as discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the section section of the field were unchanged. Two power showls removed the spur track from the northcostern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The cont border of the landing between the normbeastern corner and a point about 300 notors from it was moved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off end the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then laid, Six power showls removed the full in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were ongaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Thront all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.		25X1 detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the bereacks installations, concreting work on the runway, taxinay and connecting lanes were completed. Concreting in the eastern extension of the runway as discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the section section of the field were unchanged. Two power showls removed the spur track from the northcostern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The cont border of the landing between the normbeastern corner and a point about 300 notors from it was moved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off end the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then laid, Six power showls removed the full in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were ongaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Thront all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field. detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the bereacks installations, concreting work on the runway, taxinay and connecting lanes were completed. Concreting in the eastern extension of the runway as discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the section section of the field were unchanged. Two power showls removed the spur track from the northcostern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The cont border of the landing between the normbeastern corner and a point about 300 notors from it was moved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off end the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then laid, Six power showls removed the full in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were ongaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Thront all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field. an sir force advance detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the bargacks installations, concreting work on the ruwway, taxiway and connecting lanes were completed. Concreting in the eastern extension of the ruwway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northeastern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Secienterain road. The cost border of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 300 motors from it was nowed 150 to 200 metacs to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power showels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 derman laborers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was fall occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was fall occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  Consent.*  Consent.*  Construction at Herseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the processes of an advance dotail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  Document Fo.   Reference Copy  Document Fo.   Reference Copy  Document Fo.    Consent.*  Consent.*  Consent.*  Becther Copy  Document Fo.   Reference Copy  Docum	٦.
detail had been stationed at the field for about four weeks.  2. On 26 October, reconstruction of the barracks installations, concreting work on the rurway, taxinay and connecting lanes were completed. Occurring in the eastern extension of the rurway was discontinued.  1 this work will not be resumed. The connecting lanes in the bactern section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northosestern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Gerichterain read. The east border of the landing between the northosestern carner and a point about 30 motors from it was noved 150 to 200 metacs to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 motor surface. A railroad branch line was then haid, Six power shovels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborare were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1 000 mon. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.	7.0	an sir force	advance rumsy, taxinay and connecting lanes were completed. Connecting in the eastern extension of the runway was discontinued.    this work will not be resumed. The connecting lanes in the bestern section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northeastern corner of the field so far as a point in line with the Genicherain read. The east border of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 300 motors from it was moved 150 to 200 interes to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the ramoval of a 3 motor surface.  A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power showels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.    The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.   The field within the next days.    Consent.   Consent.   most of the information at hereshare artifield was completed by late-October 1071. The information at hereshare artifield was completed by late-October 1071. The information on the presence of an advance dotail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    REFERENCE COPY			devanos be resumed. The connecting lanes in the pestern section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northeastern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Gerichterain road. The cost border of the landing between the northeastern canner and a point about 300 motors from it was noved 150 to 200 motors to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 motor surface. A railroad branch line was then haid, Six power shovels remove the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German haborers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 mon. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 mon. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was the field within the next days.  1. Conject.    Conject.   Conject.	2。	On 26 October, reconstruction of the barracks installations, concreting w	ork on the be resumed. The connecting lanes in the sectors section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northeastern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Gerichterain road. The cost border of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 300 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 motor surface. A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1 000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  Conject.    Conject.   Conject.
unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern corner of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The east border of the landing between the normheastern corner and a point about 300 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1000 mm. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.   new Soviets, probably flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  1. Comment.    Comment.   Com	-	runway, taxiway and connecting lames were completed, concreting in the da	stern mill not of the field as far as a point in line with the Sewichterain road. The cost border of the landing between the normhestern carner and a point about 300 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then laid, Six power shovels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 man. Almont all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field	-	extension of the runway was discontinued.   this work	will not border of the landing between the norshesetern corner and a point about 300 motors from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary was staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter surface. A railroad branch line was then laid, Six power shovels removed the hill in the wastern section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.   new Soviets, probably flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  1. Comment.    Comment.   Document the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    Classification   Document to be constituted as a complete to the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    Document to be credible.		extension of the runway was discontinued this work be resumed. The connecting lanes in the sestern section of the field were	will not staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 moter surface.  A railroad branch line was then laid, Six power shoveds removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German behavers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  Flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  Concent.    construction at largeburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    REFERENCE COPY   100 men. Almost all the spected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    Concent.	-	extension of the runway was discontinued this work be resumed. The connecting lanes in the eastern section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northeastern	will not corner
A railroad branch line was then Taid, Six power shovels removed the hill in the western section of the field. About 300 German ishorers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  1. Convent.  Construction at herseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1991. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  10 NOT GIRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document Fo	-	extension of the runway was discontinued this work be resumed. The connecting lanes in the eastern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The capturer of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3	will not corner st western section of the field. About 300 German lebergers were engaged at both construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almont all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field. Inew Soviets, probably flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  1. Compent.  Comment.  Construction at Legeburg airfield was completed by late-October 1991. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  DO NOT GIRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Deciment Fo	-	extension of the runway was discontinued this work to be resumed. The connecting lanes in the sestern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The capturer of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary	will not corner st 33 was construction sites.  3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field. Inew Soviets, probably flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  1. Comment.    construction at Europeurg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    REFERENCE COPY   One of the comment is believed to be credible.   Decument is a complete that is the comment is a complete that is a complete that is a complete that is the comment is a complete that is a comp	-	extension of the runway was discontinued this work to be resumed. The connecting lanes in the sestern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The capturer of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur	will not corner st so vas rface.
3. The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets were engaged in grading the landing field.  flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  *  Content.  construction at Mergeburg airfield was completed by late-October 1991. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  10 NOT GIRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document Fo.  No Chang  Decing  Beckey  Class. Classific 25X1  Author Hill 10-2		extension of the runway was discontinued this work be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The capacitar of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill	will not corner st 300 vas face. in the
engaged in grading the landing field.  flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.    Comment.  construction at herseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1991. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    REFERENCE COPY  90 NOT CIRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document Fo.  No Chang  Glass. Unit is 200 25X1  Auth.: Hill 10-2		extension of the runway was discontinued.	will not corner st 300 vas face. in the
engaged in grading the landing field.  flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.    Compent.  construction at hereeburg airfield was completed by late-October 1991. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.    REFERENCE COPY  DO NOT CIRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Decument Fo.  No Chang  Glass. Unit is 2006  Auth.: Hill 10-2		extension of the runway was discontinued.	will not corner st 300 vas face. in the
* Construction at Merseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  DO NOT CIRCULATE*  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document No.		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.	will not corner st 100 was face. in the both
* Construction at Merseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  DOMEIDE  Document Fo. Doc		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The construction of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets	will not corner st st so was face. in the both
Construction at Merseburg airfield was completed by late-Octobor 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  DO NOT CHRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document No. No Change Decided arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The construction of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.	will not corner st st so was face. in the both
Construction at Merseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival of an air unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  90 Not circulate  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document No.  No Change  Document No.  No Chang		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The construction of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.	will not corner st st so was face. in the both
REFERENCE COPY  DO NOT CIRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document No.  No Change  Declaration  De		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The construction of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.	will not corner st st so was face. in the both
REFERENCE COPY  DO NOT GIRCULATE  25X1  CLASSIFICATION  Document No.  No Change  Decidence  Class. (10.  Auth.: Hill 73-2		extension of the runway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the devichterain read. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.	will not corner st O) was rface. in the ooth were robably
CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATION  CONEIDE  Document No. Co Coneide  No Change  Declare  Class. Class. Class. Cane. 3 © 25X1  Auth.: HR 73-2		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the descinterain read. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid, Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by field within the next days.  Consent.  Con	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
Document No. Change   Decision	3.	be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the desichterain road. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by field within the next days.  Content.  Construction at Merseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATION  Document Fig.  Declare  Class.		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the desichterain road. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by field within the next days.  Content.  Construction at Merseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
Document No. Change   Decise   Class.	3.	be resumed. The connecting lanes in the seatern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the desichterain road. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by field within the next days.  Content.  Construction at Merseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATION  Document Fig.  Declare  Class.		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the eastern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichtsrain road. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets of flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets of flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
Document Po.    Document Po.   Docum		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the eastern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichtsrain road. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets of flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets of flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
CLASSIFICATION  Document Fo  No Change    Decider   Class. Class		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the eastern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichtsrain road. The caborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was neved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets of flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets of flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
Document Fo.  No Change  Decides  Class. Cla		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the sestern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Serichtsrain road. The coborder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 meters from it was moved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field within the next days.  Consent.  Consent.  REFERENCE COPY  REFERENCE COPY  REFERENCE COPY	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
Ho Change  Decin  Class. Care  Autha HR 73-2		be resumed. The connecting lanes in the restern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The contents from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1.000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still are arrive at the field within the next days.  REFERENCE COPY  On NOT CIRCULATE  25X1	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
No Change  Decin  Class. Can  Auth.: HR 73-2		extension of the runway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the lastern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain road. The consorder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point about 3 motors from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 motor sur a railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 Jerman laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 mon. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 mon. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field within the next days.  Construction at Herseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  DO NOT GIRCULATE  25X1	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
Glass. Class. HR 73-2		extension of the runway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the sestern section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Gerichterain road. The consorder of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point alout 3 motors from it was moved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power showels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field within the next days.  Construction at Margeburg airfield was completed by late-October 1971. A information on the presence of an advance dotail and the expected arrival unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  OUT CIRCULATE  CLASSIFICATION  CLA	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
Class. Class. Class. HR 73-2		extension of the runway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the sestern section of the field were unchanged. Two power showels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Gerichterain read. The content of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point alout 3 motors from it was moved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power showels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at a construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field within the next days.  Consent.  Consent.  Consent.*	will not corner st SS was rface. in the both were robably
-NI		extension of the runway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the settern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain read. The converse of the landing between the northeastern corner and a point albout 3 meters from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at the construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  The field was completed by late-October 1951. The information of the presence of an advance dotail and the expected arrival unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  One classification.  Decument Fo	will not corner st OJ was rface. in the ooth were robably
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		extension of the runway was discontinued.  be resumed. The connecting lanes in the settern section of the field were unchanged. Two power shovels removed the spur track from the northeastern of the field as far as a point in line with the Cerichterain read. The coborder of the landing between the northeastern carner and a point about 3 motors from it was noved 150 to 200 meters to the east. The new boundary staked off and the new area was graded after the removal of a 3 meter sur A railroad branch line was then laid. Six power shovels removed the hill western section of the field. About 300 German laborers were engaged at the construction sites.  The field was still occupied by 700 to 1,000 men. Almost all the Soviets engaged in grading the landing field.  flying personnel were to arrive at the field within the next days.  Construction at herseburg airfield was completed by late-October 1951. The information on the presence of an advance detail and the expected arrival unit is believed to be credible.  REFERENCE COPY  On NOT CIRCULATE  CLASSIFICATION  Document For Decine Best of the Change Dec	will not corner st OJ was rface. in the ooth were robably